Vernon was the eldest child born to his devoted parents, Charlotte and Vernon Falls, Sr. on June 14, 1984 in Dallas, Texas and transitioned to glory on Friday, September 15, 2023. He was a cherished brother to his siblings, Chelsie and Victor, and a source of inspiration and support to his family. From a very young age, his heart was dedicated to the Lord, and he accepted Jesus into his life, a commitment that he upheld with grace and devotion throughout his lifetime. He was ordained as a minister at New Bibleway Family Church under the leadership of Supt. Howard E. Falls, Sr. in 2017. In his later years he became a member of Jericho COGIC under the leadership of Elder Lincoln Taylor.

He was a dedicated and passionate worker at a childcare center in Dallas, Texas, as well as a committed substitute teacher who nurtured and guided young minds in the Dallas Independent School District.

Beyond education Vernon's greatest passions was music, and he used his exceptional talents to serve the Lord and bring joy to those around him. He led the choir with great enthusiasm, infusing every performance with a spirit of praise and worship. As a gifted soloist, he moved hearts with his melodious voice, leaving a lasting impact on the congregation. His talent extended beyond the choir, as he often served as the Master of Ceremonies for numerous church programs and events, ensuring that each gathering was filled with grace and reverence.

Vernon Falls, Jr. was not only a musician but also a praying man who believed in the power of prayer to heal and uplift. His genuine faith and fervent prayers offered comfort and hope to countless souls in need as well as to himself. He was a pillar of strength in times of adversity and a source of inspiration to everyone who had the privilege of knowing him.

As the older brother of Victor Falls, he bore a profound responsibility and assumed the role of a protector and mentor, ensuring that Victor felt loved and cared for amidst life's challenges. Vernon's commitment to his little brother transcended the ordinary; he was not merely a sibling but a guiding light.

Junior, as we affectionately called him, will be deeply missed, but his spirit lives on in the hearts of those who were touched by his love and faith. His legacy of devotion, kindness, and unwavering commitment to the Lord will continue to inspire generations to come. As we mourn the loss of this remarkable man, we take solace in the knowledge that his heart is now with the Lord, and he has found eternal peace in the arms of Jesus.

“ Vernon was some kind of gospel preacher. It was a blessing to have known and served with him. Until we meet again.... praying for the family. ”
